Re: City of Los Angeles Request to Consolidate Three Ballot Measures with the November 7, 2006 State of California General Election

Honorable Members:

Transmitted herewith for consideration and approval by the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors are Special Election consolidation requests for the November 7, 2006 State of California General Election (total of three ballot measures) submitted by the City of Los Angeles as follows:

1. Affordable Housing General Obligation Bonds Proposition

- A Special Election Ordinance adopted by the Los Angeles City Council on July 26, 2006, approved by the Mayor, ordering the placement of an Affordable Housing General Obligation Bonds Proposition Measure before the voters at the November 7, 2006 State General Election.
- A Resolution adopted by the Los Angeles City Council on July 26, 2006, that requests the Board of Supervisors to authorize the consolidation of this Affordable Housing General Obligation Bonds Proposition Measure on to the State General Election to be held on November 7, 2006. In accordance with Section 10403 of the California Elections Code, this Resolution sets forth the exact form of the Ballot Title and Question of the Measure, as it will appear on the ballot.

[Note: Requires 2/3 majority vote for passage.]

2. Technical Change For Proposition F Regional Fire Stations Proposition

- A Special Election Ordinance adopted by the Los Angeles City Council on July 26, 2006, approved by the Mayor, ordering the placement of a Technical Change For Proposition F Regional Fire Stations Proposition Measure before the voters at the November 7, 2006 State General Election.
- A Resolution adopted by the Los Angeles City Council on July 26, 2006, that requests the Board of Supervisors to authorize the consolidation of this Technical Change For Proposition F Regional Fire Stations Proposition Measure on to the State General Election to be held on November 7, 2006. In accordance with Section 10403 of the California Elections Code, this Resolution sets forth the exact form of the Ballot Title and Question of the Measure, as it will appear on the ballot.

[Note: Requires 2/3-majority vote for passage.]

3. Council Member Term Limits And Various Ethics Reforms Charter Amendment and Ordinance Proposition Measure

- A Special Election Ordinance adopted by the Los Angeles City Council on August 2, 2006, approved by the Mayor, ordering the placement of a Council Member Term Limits And Various Ethics Reforms Charter Amendment and Ordinance Proposition Measure before the voters at the November 7, 2006 State General Election.
- A Resolution adopted by the Los Angeles City Council on August 2, 2006, that requests the Board of Supervisors to authorize the consolidation of this Council Member Term Limits And Various Ethics Reforms Charter Amendment and Ordinance Proposition Measure on to the State General Election to be held on November 7, 2006. ORDINANCE NO. 177774

An ordinance calling a Special Election to be held on Tuesday, November 7, 2006, for the purpose of submitting to the qualified voters of the City a proposition to incur bonded indebtedness by the City for certain municipal improvements and consolidating the Special Election with the State General Election to be held on the same date.

THE PEOPLE OF THE CITY OF LOS ANGELES
DO ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. A Special Election is hereby called to be held in the City of Los Angeles on Tuesday, November 7, 2006, for the purpose of submitting to the qualified voters of the City the proposition ordered submitted by the Council of the City of Los Angeles of incurring a bonded indebtedness in the amount set forth below, and for the purposes set forth in the Resolution of Necessity adopted by the Council of the City of Los Angeles on July 25, 2006, by a vote of not less than two-thirds of all its members, declaring that the public interest and necessity demand the acquisition and construction by the City of Los Angeles of certain municipal improvements, as set forth in the Resolution of Necessity, in Section 2 below and in the ballot proposition.

Sec. 2. The object and purposes for which the indebtedness is to be incurred is as follows: The acquisition, construction, rehabilitation, development and financing of safe, clean affordable housing for the homeless and those in danger of becoming homeless, such as battered women and their children, veterans, seniors and the disabled; assist first time homebuyers; provide low income working families safe and affordable rental housing; and making loans to private and nonprofit entities to develop affordable housing.

Sec. 3. The estimated cost of the municipal improvements described in Section 2 is the sum of One Billion Dollars and the principal amount of the indebtedness to be incurred is the sum of One Billion Dollars. The maximum rate of interest to be paid on the indebtedness shall be the rate of twelve percent per annum, or a higher maximum rate as may be permitted by law at the time the bonds are issued. The actual rate or rates of interest on the bonds shall be determined at or prior to the time of the bond sale or sales. The interest shall be payable semi-annually, except that interest for the first year after the date of the bonds may be made payable at the end of that year. The estimated cost of the municipal improvements includes the following: (a) legal or other fees incidental to or connected with the authorization, issuance and sale of the bonds; (b) the costs of printing the bonds and other costs and expenses incidental to or connected with the authorization, issuance and sale of the bonds; and (c) the costs of the election, as permitted by law.

Sec. 4. The proposition shall contain the description of the measure in accordance with Sections 96 and 97 of the Los Angeles City Election Code, Section 10201 of the Elections Code of the State of California, and the resolution of the Council adopted July --, 2006. The ballot title to be used at the Special Election for the proposition to be submitted to the qualified voters of the City of Los Angeles shall be:

AFFORDABLE HOUSING
GENERAL OBLIGATION BONDS.
CITY OF LOS ANGELES PROPOSITION ____.

To provide safe, clean affordable housing for the homeless	YES and those in danger of becoming homeless, such as battered women and their children, veterans, seniors and the disabled;
assist first time homebuyers; provide low income working families safe and affordable rental housing; shall the City of Los Angeles issue $1,000,000,000 of bonds, with	NO independent citizen oversight, mandatory annual financial audits, and prosecution for criminal misuse of funds?

Sec. 5. The proposition shall be designated on the ballot or ballot pages by the letter or number printed on the left margin of the square containing the description of each proposition in accordance with California Election Code Section 13116. Upon the designation by the proper County of Los Angeles officials of the letter or number to be affixed to the proposition, that letter or number is hereby adopted and shall be the designation for the ballot title.

Sec. 6. To vote on the proposition, the voter shall mark the ballot next to the word "Yes" or the word "No." A "Yes" vote shall be counted in favor of adoption of the proposition; a "No" vote shall be counted against the adoption of the proposition.

Sec. 7. The Special Election now called, shall be and is ordered consolidated with the State General Election to be held in the City of Los Angeles on November 7, 2006.

Sec. 8. The polls for the election shall be opened at 7:00 a.m. on November 7, 2006, and shall remain open continuously until 8:00 p.m. of the same day, when the polls shall be closed, except as provided in California Election Section 14401.

Sec. 9. The election precincts, polling places, and officers of election for the Special Election now called and ordered to be held on November 7, 2006, shall be the same as those provided in the City of Los Angeles for the State General Election and the election shall be held in all respects as if there were only one election. Furthermore, for the precincts, polling places, and officers of election reference is hereby made to the order of the Registrar-Recorder of the County of Los Angeles to be adopted for the State General Election.

Sec. 10. In all other particulars, the Special Election shall be held and conducted as provided by law for the holding of the State General Election in the City of Los Angeles. The Board of Supervisors of the County of Los Angeles shall have the authority to canvass the returns of the Special Election, and the City Council of the City of Los Angeles upon receipt of the certified result of the canvass of the returns shall declare the results of the Special Election.

Sec. 11. This ordinance shall take effect upon its publication as provided in Charter Section 252.

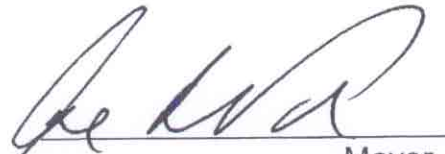

Sec. 12. The City Clerk shall certify to the passage of this ordinance by the Council of the City of Los Angeles by a vote of not less than two-thirds of all of its members, and shall cause this ordinance to be published prior to the time appointed for the holding of the election once a week for two weeks in a newspaper published in the City of Los Angeles less than six days a week or published once a day for at least seven days in a newspaper published at least six days a week in the City of Los Angeles.

I hereby certify that this ordinance was passed by the Council of the City of Los Angeles, by a vote of not less than two-thirds of all of its members, at its meeting of JUL 26, 2006.

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, the Council of the City of Los Angeles has ordered a Special Election to be held in the City of Los Angeles on November 7, 2006, for the purpose of submitting to the qualified voters of the City a certain Affordable Housing Bond Proposition, and to consolidate that Special Election with the State of California General Election to be held on the same date.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

Section 1. That the Council of the City of Los Angeles respectfully requests the Board of Supervisors of the County of Los Angeles to consolidate with the State General Election to be held on November 7, 2006, a Special Election for the purpose of submitting to the qualified voters of the City of Los Angeles the following Affordable Housing Bond Proposition:

AFFORDABLE HOUSING GENERAL OBLIGATION BONDS. CITY OF LOS ANGELES PROPOSITION ____.

To provide safe, clean affordable housing for the homeless and those in danger of becoming homeless, such as battered women and their children, veterans, seniors and the disabled; assist first time homebuyers; provide low income working families safe and affordable rental housing; shall the City of Los Angeles issue $1,000,000,000 of bonds, with independent citizen oversight, mandatory annual financial audits, and prosecution for criminal misuse of funds?

Sec. 2. That the Board of Supervisors be requested to fix the costs to be paid by the City of Los Angeles for conducting the Special Election and that the City of Los Angeles will reimburse the County of Los Angeles for the costs incurred in conducting the Special Election.

Sec. 3. That the Board of Supervisors be requested to issue instructions to the County Registrar-Recorder to take any and all steps necessary on the part of the County of Los Angeles to hold the Special Election.

Sec. 4. That the City Clerk be instructed to cooperate with the County Registrar-Recorder and to perform or cause to be performed those functions preliminary to the conduct of the Special Election as may be agreed upon with the County Registrar-Recorder.

Sec. 5. That the City Attorney and the City Clerk be directed to take any and all steps necessary on the part of the City of Los Angeles to hold the consolidated Special Election.

Sec. 6. That the Board of Supervisors be hereby authorized to canvass the returns of the Special Election for which consolidation is requested.

Sec. 7. That the City Clerk file a duly certified copy of this resolution forthwith with the Board of Supervisors of the County of Los Angeles and to provide a copy of the resolution to the County Registrar-Recorder.

I hereby certify that the foregoing resolution was adopted by the Council of the City of Los Angeles at its meeting held on July 26, 2006.

ORDINANCE NO. 177744

An Ordinance calling a Special Election to be held on Tuesday, November 7, 2006, for the purpose of submitting to the qualified voters of the City of Los Angeles a certain proposition, and to consolidate the Special Election with the State General Election to be held on the same date.

THE PEOPLE OF THE CITY OF LOS ANGELES
DO ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. A Special Election is hereby called to be held in the City of Los Angeles on November 7, 2006, for the purpose of submitting to the qualified voters of the City the proposition ordered submitted by the Council of the City of Los Angeles for the purpose of making a technical change to Proposition F, approved by voters November 7, 2000, to allow Proposition F funded regional fire stations to be built on one or more sites totalling less than 2 acres if the Fire Department decides that the station as built will fully meet operational needs, as set forth in the Resolution of Necessity adopted by the Council on July 25, 2006.

Sec. 2. The ballot title to be used at said Special Election for the proposition to be submitted to the qualified voters of the City of Los Angeles shall be:

CITY OF LOS ANGELES PROPOSITION ____
TECHNICAL CHANGE FOR PROPOSITION F REGIONAL FIRE STATIONS.

To lower costs and provide design flexibility for new regional fire stations, shall Proposition F (voter approved November 7, 2000) be changed to allow regional fire stations to be built on one or more sites totalling less than 2 acres, instead of requiring a single 2-acre site, if the Fire Department decides that the station can be built to fully meet operational needs?

Sec. 3. The proposition shall be designated on the ballot or ballot pages by the letter or number printed on the left margin of the square containing the description of each proposition in accordance with California Elections Code Section 13116. Upon the designation by the proper County of Los Angeles officials of the letter or number to be affixed to the proposition, the same is hereby adopted and shall be the designation for the ballot title.

Sec. 4. To vote on a proposition, the voter shall mark the ballot next to the word "Yes" or the word "No." A "Yes" vote shall be counted in favor of adoption of the proposition; a "No" vote shall be counted against adoption of the proposition.

Sec. 5. The Special Election hereby called shall be, and the same is hereby ordered consolidated with, the State General Election to be held in the City of Los Angeles on Tuesday, November 7, 2006.

Sec. 6. The voting polls on election day shall open at 7:00 a.m., November 7, 2006, and shall remain open until 8:00 p.m. of the same day when the polls shall be closed, except as provided in California Elections Code Section 14401.

Sec. 7. The election precincts, polling places, and officers of election for the Special Election hereby called and ordered to be held on November 7, 2006, shall be the same as those provided in the City of Los Angeles for the State General Election, and the election shall be held in all respects as if there were only one election. Furthermore, for the precincts, polling places and officers of election, reference is hereby made to the Order of the Registrar Recorder of the County of Los Angeles to be adopted for the State General Election.

Sec. 8. In all other particulars, the Special Election shall be held and conducted as provided by law for holding of the State General Election in the City of Los Angeles. The Board of Supervisors of the County of Los Angeles shall have the authority to canvass the returns of the Special Election, and the City Council of the City of Los Angeles upon receipt of the certified result of the canvass of the returns shall declare the results thereof.

Sec. 9. This ordinance shall take effect upon its publication as provided in Charter Section 252.

Sec. 10. The City Clerk shall certify to the passage of this ordinance by the Council of the City of Los Angeles by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of all of its members and shall cause this ordinance to be published prior to the time appointed for the holding of the election once a week for two weeks in a newspaper published less than six (6) days a week in the City of Los Angeles or published once a day for at least seven (7) days in a newspaper published at least six (6) days a week in the City of Los Angeles.

The proposition shall be designated on the ballot or ballot pages by a letter or number printed on the left margin of the square containing the description of each proposition in accordance with California Elections Code Section 13116. Upon the designation by the proper County of Los Angeles officials of the letter or number to be assigned to the proposition, that letter or number is hereby adopted and shall be the designation for the ballot title.

Sec. 4. To vote on the proposition, the voter shall mark the ballot next to the word "Yes" or the word "No." A "Yes" vote shall be counted in favor of adoption of the proposition and a "No" vote shall be counted against adoption of the proposition.

Sec. 5. The Special Election hereby called shall be, and the same is hereby ordered consolidated with, the State General Election to be held in the City of Los Angeles on Tuesday, November 7, 2006.

Sec. 6. The voting polls on election day shall open at 7:00 a.m., November 7, 2006, and shall remain open until 8:00 p.m. of the same day when the voting polls shall be closed, except as provided in California Elections Code Section 14401.

Sec. 7. The election precincts, polling places, and officers of election for the Special Election hereby called and ordered to be held on November 7, 2006, shall be the same as those provided in the City of Los Angeles for the State General Election, and the election shall be held in all respects as if there were only one election. Furthermore, for the precincts, polling places, and officers of election, reference is hereby made to the Order of the Registrar-Recorder of the County of Los Angeles to be adopted for the State General Election.

Sec. 8. In all other particulars, the Special Election shall be held and conducted as provided by law for holding of the State General Election in the City of Los Angeles. The Board of Supervisors of the County of Los Angeles shall have authority to canvass the returns of the Special Election, and the City Council of the City of Los Angeles upon receipt of the certified results of the canvass of election returns shall declare the results thereof.

Sec. 9. The City Clerk shall certify to the passage of this ordinance and have it published in accordance with Council policy, either in a daily newspaper circulated in the City of Los Angeles or by posting for ten days in three public places in the City of Los Angeles: one copy on the bulletin board located at the Main Street entrance to the Los Angeles City Hall; one copy on the bulletin board located at the Main Street entrance to the Los Angeles City Hall East; and one copy on the bulletin board located at the Temple Street entrance to the Los Angeles County Hall of Records.

I hereby certify that this ordinance was passed by the Council of the City of Los Angeles, at its meeting of AUG 02 2006.

(Revised Per Council Action 8/2/06)

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, the Council of the City of Los Angeles has ordered a Special Election to be held in the City of Los Angeles on November 7, 2006, for the purpose of submitting to the qualified voters of the City a certain Charter Amendment relating to term limits for City Councilmembers and various ethics reform measures, and to consolidate that Special Election with the State of California General Election to be held on the same date.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

Section 1. That the Council of the City of Los Angeles respectfully requests the Board of Supervisors of the County of Los Angeles to consolidate with the State General Election to be held on November 7, 2006, a Special Election for the purpose of submitting to the qualified voters of the City of Los Angeles the following Charter Amendment and Ordinance Proposition relating to term limits for City Councilmembers and various ethics reform measures:

COUNCILMEMBER TERM LIMITS OF THREE TERMS; CITY LOBBYING, CAMPAIGN FINANCE AND ETHICS LAWS. CHARTER AMENDMENT AND ORDINANCE PROPOSITION ____.

Shall the Charter be amended and ordinance adopted to: change Councilmember term limits to three terms; restrict lobbyists from making campaign contributions, gifts and becoming commissioners; revise lobbyist registration thresholds; require contractors certify compliance with lobbying laws; extend elected officials' post-employment restrictions; require ethics training; and revise requirements for independent expenditures and campaign communications?

Sec. 2. That the Board of Supervisors be requested to fix the costs to be paid by the City of Los Angeles for conducting the Special Election and that the City of Los Angeles will reimburse the County of Los Angeles for the costs incurred in conducting the Special Election.

Sec. 3. That the Board of Supervisors be requested to issue instructions to the County Registrar-Recorder to take any and all steps necessary on the part of the County of Los Angeles to hold the Special Election.

Sec. 4. That the City Clerk be instructed to cooperate with the County Registrar-Recorder and to perform or cause to be performed those functions preliminary to the conduct of the Special Election as may be agreed upon with the County Registrar-Recorder.

Sec. 5. That the City Attorney and the City Clerk be directed to take any and all steps necessary on the part of the City of Los Angeles to hold the consolidated Special Election.

Sec. 6. That the Board of Supervisors be hereby authorized to canvass the returns of the Special Election for which consolidation is requested.

Sec. 7. That the City Clerk file a duly certified copy of this resolution forthwith with the Board of Supervisors of the County of Los Angeles and to provide a copy of the resolution to the County Registrar-Recorder.

I hereby certify that the foregoing resolution was adopted by the Council of the City of Los Angeles at its meeting held on August 2, 2006.
